

Vacancy notice 2024 – 061 DEL (AD) Head of Delegation MALI

EEAS Vacancy Notice – Head of Delegation MALI

Type of post "Head of Unit or equivalent"

EU Officials – AD 9 – AD 14 – Candidates from the Member States<sup>1</sup> – AD 12

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is looking for an individual to fill the post of Head of Delegation of the European Union to Mali.

The Delegation is placed under the authority of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy.

We propose:

The Head of Delegation is responsible for management of all staff (EEAS and Commission) and financial resources.

The Head of Delegation is responsible for the security of the delegation and staff and is in the lead in situations of crisis management. The security level in Mali is critical in large parts of the country, in particular the centre and the north, while the alert level is also high in the capital, Bamako, following the terrorist attacks of recent years. Given this situation, a staff reduction plan has been launched to adapt the EU presence locally. The Head of Delegation will have to handle this staff reduction and adapt security measures and contingency planning in consequence, with relevant HQ services.

The political situation in Mali is extremely complex, fluid and challenging, requiring frequent high-level exchanges and much diplomatic skill in contributing to the fashioning of the most appropriate EU response. In this context, key areas of activity of the Delegation cover political affairs, peace and security, democratic governance, rule of law and human rights, election related issues (upcoming general elections foreseen for May 2024), migration, and other EU policies.

Three years after formulating our priorities that would guide our actions in Mali for the 2021-2027 exercise, the European Union – Mali political and cooperation framework was disrupted with a geopolitical shift triggered by a second coup d'état on 24 May 2021. This shift led to a questioning of Western partnerships, for the benefit of other partners and the deployment of the Wagner Group in support of the Malian armed forces. This has resulted in the disengagement of European security sector actors - including CSDP (EUTM) and the departure of the Barkhane

<sup>1</sup> Temporary Agents from national diplomatic services of the Member States to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies will also be reclassified to this grade if selected for the post.

Force - as well as the UN (MINUSMA). the cooperation between Malian security forces and European forces (Mission EUTM and EUCAP Mali), still present in Mali, has been deteriorated. The political space is marked by the authoritarian evolution of the transitional government towards discordant voices at the national level (political leaders or civil society), but also against international partners, and neighbouring countries.

In an environment of political and security uncertainty, the EU has taken a pragmatic and prudent approach to political dialogue, while continuing humanitarian aid and cooperation for the direct benefit of the Malian population and civil society. The aim is to protect EU's interests by remaining present, so that we could resume activities in the event of a change in the political environment, while avoiding any support that could benefit the forces affiliated with Russia. It is important to maintain a firm but measured approach, bearing in mind that our political and diplomatic relationship in Mali must be considered on the longer term.

The Head of Delegation of the European Union to Mali will assist the High Representative and the Commission in fulfilling their mandates in the field of external relations, and, in particular, will have the following tasks:

- To maintain and further enhance bilateral relations across the whole policy spectrum, notably in the political, economic, commercial, security and international assistance coordination fields and to carry out and to promote regular political dialogue; with special attention paid to cooperation on the Global Agenda and climate change and energy cooperation. .
- To represent the EU in Mali to ensure EU coordination (lead coordination within the EU at local level and represent the EU), and to ensure a high degree of consistency between the different areas of the EU's external actions and between these and other EU policies;
- To pursue the EU's policies and their local coherence in all areas, to promote and protect the EU's interests and values, and to promote the visibility of the EU by carrying out press, information and communication activities, including through social media;
- To maintain contacts, exchange information and coordinate with Member States represented in Mali in the implementation of EU policies and to report regularly to the Headquarters of the EEAS and the Commission as appropriate on all matters covered by his/her mandate and maintain relations with other EU institutions as well as any regional and international organisations in Mali;
- To provide advice and support to the EEAS Headquarters, to the Commission and to the office of the President of the European Council as appropriate on policy issues and developments arising within the framework of the EU-Mali bilateral relations;
- To ensure sound management of the Delegation, including financial management and correct application of the existing rules concerning the security of individuals (including the families of expatriated staff), goods and property as well as information; manage crises and ensure continuity of Delegation operations, including in the framework of business continuity.
- To ensure effective implementation as authorising officer by sub-delegation of any potential external assistance programmes in Mali and their reporting activities.
